Background and summary

- In July 2021, MTG announced that it had entered into an agreement to acquire the leading word games developer PlaySimple Games Private Limited ("PlaySimple"). The up-front consideration was intended to consist of cash and shares in MTG. The cash portion of the up-front consideration was paid in July 2021 when MTG completed the acquisition of 77% of the shares in PlaySimple. It was the intention that the remaining 23% of the up-front consideration was to be paid through shares in MTG.
- For this purpose, an Extraordinary General Meeting was held 28 July 2021, at which meeting the shareholders resolved upon, inter alia, an issue of a maximum of 6,194,343 class C shares, acquisition of the new issued shares and transfer of treasury class B shares (after conversion from class C shares) to the sellers of PlaySimple as payment for the remaining 23% of the shares in PlaySimple.
- The Company does not see it as feasible to pay the remaining 23% of the up-front consideration with shares in MTG within the timeframe set at the extraordinary shareholders meeting in July 2021.
- The shareholders of MTG are therefore asked to prolong the timeframe under a new general meeting resolution under which class B shares can be transferred to the sellers of PlaySimple.
- The PlaySimple sellers, who are also operating PlaySimple, have market-leading know-how and capabilities within mobile gaming that benefit the MTG group as a whole. Hence, the Company sees a great benefit in having the PlaySimple sellers incentivized on group level.

The new proposal

MTGx Gaming Holding AB ("MTG Gaming"), a subsidiary of the Company has entered into a share sale and purchase agreement (as amended) (the "SPA") regarding the purchase of shares in PlaySimple together with an investment agreement (as amended) (together with the SPA, the "Transaction Agreements"). The transfer of MTG shares as consideration for the remaining 23% of the shares in PlaySimple was conditional upon receiving approval from the Reserve Bank of India. Such approval has not been obtained and the issued shares are still held by the Company. The Company and the sellers of PlaySimple have, as was announced through a press release 1 November 2023, nevertheless agreed and effectuated a transfer of the remaining shares in PlaySimple to MTG Gaming and the decisions in items 7 and 8 has the purpose to enable for MTG Gaming to deliver consideration to the sellers of PlaySimple in accordance with the Transaction Agreements.

The board of directors therefore proposes that a maximum of 6,194,343 class B shares (after conversion from own class C shares) shall be transferred to the sellers of PlaySimple in accordance with the following:

- The right to receive class B shares shall, with deviation from the shareholders' preferential rights, be granted to the sellers of PlaySimple (or one or more entities controlled or designated by such sellers).
- The class B shares shall be transferred not later than by 31 January 2026.
- The class B shares shall be transferred, in accordance with the terms of the Transaction Agreements, either without any consideration paid or against payment.

The reason for the proposed transfer of own class B shares and for the deviation from the shareholders' preferential rights is to enable for MTG Gaming to deliver consideration to the sellers of PlaySimple in accordance with MTG Gaming's obligations under the Transaction Agreements.

Item 8: Resolution on transfer of own class B shares on a regulated market or by way of accelerated bookbuilding procedures

In case a transfer of B shares is not possible on the terms set out in item 7 and the Transaction Agreements, the board of directors also proposes that the Extraordinary General Meeting resolves on a transfer of own class B shares (after conversion from class C shares) on a regulated market or by way of accelerated bookbuilding procedures in accordance with the following:

Transfers on a regulated market

- A maximum of 6,194,343 class B shares may be transferred.
- Transfers of class B shares shall be made on Nasdaq Stockholm.
- Transfers of class B shares on Nasdaq Stockholm shall be made at a price within the, at each time, registered price interval.
- The class B shares may be transferred no later than by the next annual general meeting.

Transfers by way of accelerated bookbuilding procedures

- A maximum of 6,194,343 class B shares may be transferred in total by way of one or more accelerated book building procedures.
- The right to acquire B shares shall, with deviation from the shareholders' preferential rights, be granted to the investors willing to acquire shares in accelerated bookbuilding procedures on market terms.
- The class B shares may be transferred no later than by 30 April 2026.
- The price for the class B shares shall be determined through accelerated bookbuilding procedures.

The reason for the proposed transfer of own shares by way of accelerated bookbuilding procedures and for the deviation from the shareholders' preferential rights is to fund the consideration in accordance with the Transaction Agreements in the event the class B shares are not transferred on the terms contemplated by item 7.
